Presentation to Pfeffer Family

On behalf of fiscal court, Judge/Executive McNeill presented a portrait of former Judge/Executive Joseph P. Pfeffer to his family – wife, Gwen and children, Katherine, Megan and Patrick. Judge/Executive McNeill expressed condolences to the family on his passing as well as gratitude for Judge/Executive Pfeffer's service to our county. A portrait of Judge/Executive Pfeffer will be displayed also in the reception area of the Judge/Executive's office.

Limestone Cycling Tour

Jay Ruble, with the Limestone Cycling League, spoke to members of the court via Zoom. He said the first cycling ride was held 13 years ago and has grown to almost 600 riders participating each year. The first year Limestone Cycling was invited to be part of the Kentucky Cycling Challenge was 2018 and the group has been invited to participate again this year. . To date, 200 riders have pre-registered for this year's event. The ride is scheduled for September 11, also known as Patriot Day. This year marks the 20-year anniversary of the attacks on the World Trade Center and Pentagon. In honor and memory of the day, the bikers' jerseys are red, white and blue in color. This is a charity bike ride, with proceeds going to both the Hayswood Scholarship Fund and the Limestone Cycling Scholarship at the Maysville Community and Technical College. Mr. Ruble expressed appreciation for the support from the community every year for the cycling event. In support of the race, Commissioner McKay recommended the Mason County Fiscal Court make a monetary donation as it has done in years past. Judge/Executive McNeill said the recommendation would be considered.
